Action Information
Description: This event actually occurred on Saturday April 29th in the morning hours. Spoke with RP representative [REDACTED] and she estimates that of the total volume 35 barrels released during the event only two barrels was not contained and migrated down gradient towards the wetland area. Contractors have secured the release and as a precautionary measure have placed boom along the shoreline. The on duty phone officer (OSC) has requested photos in order to verify and validate that minimal effects (if any) to the wetlands have occurred. EPA does not anticipate any further action at this point provided stated claims can be justified.
